Free Acrylic Painting Lecture

Nancy Reyner is a painter of more than 30 years experience who exhibits, lectures & teaches locally and nationally. Nancy holds a BFA from the Rhode Island School of Design and an MFA from Columbia University. She is the author of two painting technique books published by North Light Books, and has produced an instructional DVD. She lives in Santa Fe, NM. Please visit her at www.NancyReyner.com

Nancy Reyner, lecturer for Golden Artist Colors, Inc presents a FREE two hour lecture/demonstration. Nancy focuses on new products and techniques including Digital Mixed Media, the slow drying “Open Acrylics”, plus a large array of acrylic Gels, Mediums, Gessos, Grounds, Additives, Reflective Paints, Varnishes & other new Custom Products.

Learn how acrylics can be used as grounds for other media, (i.e. watercolor or colored pencil); get key information on color mixing, blending and controlling drying time; and see how gels can customize paint or create unique textural surfaces. From traditional to contemporary to mixed media, acrylics are infinitely versatile. Artists of all levels will come away from this lecture with fresh new insights.

Technical tips, cool tricks, free product samples and information packets are available to all participants, including hand-painted color charts.

Space is limited, so register today! It's FREE.
